The following recipe shows how an appetizing, wholesome cake can be made without expensive ingredients.

SOME SPLENDID APPOINTMENTS

The Legislature, after giving Governor Gardner twelve out of his fifteen measures, has adjourned; and the Governor is making some of his appointments.

On the Penitentiary Board he has made Wm. E. Painter, of Carrollton, Mo., Chairman; J. Kelly Pool, of Centralia, and Henry Andree, of Jefferson City, the other two members. The chairman receives $4,000 a year, and the associate members $3,500. Mr. Painter is the present Warden of the Penitentiary; while Mr. Pool is Secretary of the Capitol Building Commission, and Mr. Andree was Warden of the Penitentiary under the Hadley administration.

As members of the Board of Regents of Lincoln Institute, the Governor appointed Fred A. Morris, of Mexico, and Omar D. Gray, of Sturgeon.

These are splendid appointments, and show thoroughly that the Governor is going to select efficient men to look after the affairs of the State. Governor Gardner is being congratulated generally on the splendid results he obtained in the way of new legislation, and we feel confident that in two years from now the Legislature will pass the other three or four measures supported by the Governor. The last Legislature was one of the most constructive the State has had for years, and the people generally seem to be satisfied with the results. All agree that Governor Gardner is making a splendid start in the direction of fulfilling his promise to give Missouri a business administration.

CARTER AND COATSWORTH

SOW SALE A SUCCESS

THE E. H. Carter and Son and Mrs. Frank Coatsworth sale of pure bred big type Poland China bred sows was a splendid success. Fifty two sows sold for over $6,000, averaging $116.75 apiece. Buyers were present from all parts of Missouri and adjoining states; but we were delighted to see that E. P. Johnson, of Martinsburg, topped the sales by paying $420 for one sow. At all the sales of fine stock the farmers of Audrain should see that the best are kept at home. There is no reason why Audrain should not have the best hogs and the best cattle and the Lavender, who has for sometime been connected with the Fulton Gazette, will start a new weekly, The Montgomery Herald, there. The first issue will be out next Thursday. It will be an eight page paper. Mr. Johnston, who will graduate from the Montgomery High School in June, will be one of the youngest newspaper men in the State. PLAINTIFF WINS CASE

The jury in the case of H. T. Spurling against the La Crosse Lumber Company and the A. P. Green Fire Brick Company returned a verdict late Thursday afternoon in favor of the plaintiff, awarding him $240 damages, the full amount sued for. The verdict was against the La Crosse Lumber Company only.

The suit grew out of the death of a mule belonging to Mr. Spurling last summer. One of his employees went to the La Crosse Company for cement. He alleged that the man was sent to the brick plant for the cement and that in driving over a bridge at the plant which was said to have had no railing, one of the mules hitched to the wagon fell and was badly injured that it had to be killed.

The La Crosse Company will appeal the case.
The case of David Stramick against the National Surety Company was settled by stipulation in favor of the plaintiff for $1,400.

The case of Elmer Robinson against Floyd Miller was settled in favor of the plaintiff.

The case of J. W. Smith et al. v. the Aetna Fire Ins. Co. was settled by compromise.

J. A. DARNABY, OF THIS CITY, TO MANAGE THE PONTIAC, ILL., CHAUTAUQUA

J. A. Darnaby last week signed contracts to manage the Pontiac Chautauqua, one of the largest in this country. The Pontiac Chautauqua Association owns magnificent grounds, large buildings, beautiful boating, fishing and camping grounds and an auditorium with opera chairs seating 5,000 people.

It was the opinion of the majority of the directors that the Pontiac Chautauqua had advanced to the point where experienced managers should direct the affairs and book the features.

Pontiac is not content to offer an ordinary program, but will this season book some of the big features of the Chautauqua season. Mr. Darnaby will write and produce as a two-day feature a wonderful historical pageant employing more than 500 people. He will introduce community singing, offering a chorus of 500 voices.

He has offered a contract to Madame Galli Curchi, the world's greatest soprano, who, if engaged, will sing on Sunday following a sermon by Bishop Quayle. An extensive advertising campaign will be started at once and an effort made to attract the summer campers to this beautiful spot where health, and happiness, spiritual and mental advancement, combined with delightful entertainment, will be assured.

HOME BUT PARTIALLY INSURED

It was estimated Friday that between $1,200 and $1,500 worth of furniture was burned in the fire which Thursday afternoon destroyed the home of Dr. E. H. Timmer on West Curtis avenue. The firemen were able to save the furniture in three of the rooms downstairs, but that in the kitchen and dining room and the rooms on the upper floor was destroyed. The insurance carried on the furniture was said to be insufficient to cover the loss.

The house was entirely destroyed, but the insurance carried was thought to be enough to cover the loss fairly well. The house was outside the city limits and in far away from the fire plug that the water could not reach the flames.

Reception for Pershing
MONTGOMERY CITY, Mo., March 25.—On account of the German, Field Marshal, Gen. John J. Pershing, a message here yesterday from Fort Sam Houston, Texas, stating that it will be impossible for him to attend a public reception for him here this month. He said he would accept the invitation later and would visit his home State and Montgomery at the earliest possible opportunity.

He will be entertained by the D. A. R. and Cobs Clubs of this city when he finds it possible to come. General Pershing's parents were married near here and this was the home of his uncle, Col. L. A. Thompson, who died recently.

GEN. BENNETT H. YOUNG VISITS IN THIS CITY

General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky., one of the leading lawyers of the South, and the only survivor of the 243 Confederate soldiers who were banished at the close of the Civil War, spent the week-end in this city as the guest of Clarence A. Barnes. They went to Columbia Monday morning in the interest of a case which is now pending before the Federal Courts.

General Young, who is a cousin of Dr. A. A. Wallace, of this city, has been four times re-elected head of the ex-Confederate Soldiers; is Chairman of the committee to raise the funds for the Jefferson Memorial, and is at the head of the Kentucky School for the Blind.

He was one of that small band of the most notable of the daring of the conflict. He was banished from this country as a consequence and today is the only member of the small band of men living who entered this town, looted the banks to secure funds for the Confederacy and all but escaped to Canada before capture.

General Young, who has been Superintendent of a Presbyterian Sunday School for over 40 years, spoke before the Men's Class at the Christian Church Sunday morning and delivered an address at the Presbyterian Church Sunday night.
